Positions: Judge Torres currently has two openings for a one-year clerkship commencing in or around July, August, or October 2024, and openings for all clerkships thereafter. She has completed hiring for the 2022–23 and 2023–24 terms.

Applications: Judge Torres is currently participating in the pilot Law Clerk Hiring Plan and, accordingly, will not consider applications from students graduating in 2023 until June 15, 2022. Applicants graduating in 2022 or earlier may apply at any time. Judge Torres requires at least ten months of experience (clerkship or practice) prior to the commencement of the clerkship.

Application Process: Applicants should e-mail a cover letter, resume, law school transcript, and writing sample to TorresClerkship@nysd.uscourts.gov. Please attach these items as a single PDF. Applicants should include their name and law school in the subject line of any e-mail. Three letters of reference should be submitted separately by e-mail, and the subject line should indicate that it is a letter of reference and contain the applicant’s full name. Applicants should not submit paper applications to Chambers.

Internships and Externships: Judge Torres is not accepting applications for academic-year externships or summer internships.
