Positions: Judge Cott typically hires two to three interns for each summer (as well as one high school student through the Sonia and Celina Sotomayor Judicial Internship Program). He begins reviewing applications in December/January for the following summer.

Applications: Judge Cott requires a cover letter explaining the applicant's interest in working in a judicial chambers, law school transcript with first-semester grades, and resume. Candidates should also submit a reference list and a writing sample (no more than 5 to 10 pages). Please combine these materials into a single PDF and send them to the email provided above. The email's subject line should state the name of the internship applicant (e.g., "Summer 2022 Internship Application for [Name of Applicant]").

Application Timing: Applicants who apply prior to receiving their first semester grades should supplement their application once those grades have been released. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis.
