Positions: Judge Rochon typically hires up to four interns each summer and is currently considering applications for Summer 2026 on a rolling basis. Interns will work with Judge Rochon and her clerks on substantive assignments, including research, writing, and trial preparation.

Application Process: Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, law school transcript, and short writing sample to NYSD_RochonInternship@nysd.uscourts.gov. Writing samples should reflect the applicants' own work, and applicants should include a short statement explaining the extent to which their samples have been edited (such as by, or in accordance with suggestions or comments made by, a professor or supervisor). Judge Rochon welcomes applications from 1L and 2L students; 1L applicants who apply before receiving their first-semester grades should supplement their applications once those grades have been released.
